

YEAR	ACTIVITY
1968	Reconnaissance Report - Longview Industrial Route (SR 4 and 432) completed
1971	Preliminary design of the Oregon Way Interchange at SR 432
1988	The Lower Columbia ports request U.S. Army Corps of Engineers study deepening the Columbia River shipping channel
1989	SR 432 Route Jurisdiction Study (SR 411 to SR 4) completed designating Industrial Way as SR 432
1990	Columbia River Channel Deepening Reconnaissance Report completed
1995	City of Longview acquires the Mint Farm for industrial park development
1996	Port of Longview begins development of the Industrial Rail Corridor
1998	Grand opening of the Mint Farm Industrial Park
1998	SR 432 Route Development Plan (Phase 1) Final Report completed
1999	Port of Longview begins construction of Berth 8
2000	Port of Longview dedicates Berth 8
2001	SR 432 Route Development Plan (I-5 Exit 36 to SR 4) completed
2002	Port of Longview begins construction of Industrial Rail Corridor and completes construction of Fibre Way overpass
2003	SR 432 / Talley Way Interchange Improvement Study begins
2003	Columbia River Channel Deepening Final Environmental Impact Statement and feasibility study completed
2004	Columbia River Channel Deepening Record of Decision issued
2005	Port of Longview Industrial Rail Corridor opened for business
2006	Columbia River Channel Deepening dredging begins
2009	SR 432 Realignment Feasibility Study (Tennant Way to 3rd Avenue and Industrial Way from 3rd Avenue to 38th Avenue) completed
2009	SR 432 / Talley Way Interchange improvements begin construction
2009	Washington State receives American Recovery and Reinvestment Act high speed rail stimulus funding for projects throughout the state
2010	Columbia River Channel Deepening dredging completed
2010	Port of Longview purchased Barlow Point property for future industrial development
2011	SR 432 / Talley Way Interchange (I-5 Exit 36) improvements constructed
2011	Regional Transportation Priority Projects Report (Washington State Transportation Commission) published
2012	BNSF Railway begins capacity improvements
2014	SR 432 Highway Improvements and Rail Realignment Study completed
2015	Industrial Way / Oregon Way Intersection Project (NEPA/SEPA Analysis and 30% Engineering) gets underway